STATE ST. LOW WAGES CAUSE BOY'S FALL

Carson, Pirie & Scott Prosecute $8 Employee for Stealing—Weekly Salary Figures in Trial—Minister Pleads for Boy.

THE LAST WORD!

Washington, Aug. 30.—“God forgive you; I cannot.”

President Wilson, it became known today, thus concluded his final interview with the railroad executives at the White House yesterday when they submitted their final proposition rejecting every effort and suggestion the president had made for peaceful settlement of their dispute with the employees.

George Stephens is a thief. George admitted it today in the boys' court. Then Judge Harry Dolan said he was guilty of larceny.

Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co. is guilty of—what?

The multi-million dollar State street store is guilty of paying George only $8 a week. But that wasn't even mentioned in court. The boy was on trial for stealing from the store; the store wasn't tried for stealing from George. So the $8-a-week wage wasn't even mentioned.
